

WOMEN IN BUSINESS

Designed to uncover the various challenges that evidence suggests women in business are likely to face.

Nearly half of all working adults are women, and women now make up the majority of students pursuing undergraduate and graduate degrees.

Explore both the social and psychological mechanisms that create challenges that professional women often face.

Alongside commentary from women leaders, the material also provides concrete and data-driven recommendations for advancing in your career.

Why Women in Business Training?

Evidence suggests women in business face different challenges than men in business. To help break that glass ceiling and advance their careers, our Women in Business courses give professional women the tools to address and tackle workplace obstacles such as explicit discrimination, implicit bias, glass cliffs, assumptions about familial responsibilities, and double binds.
